

Carl Dobbs Scholarship

A scholarship was created in memory of Carl Dobbs, who passed away in December 2008. Carl was the Chief of Police of Wheaton, Illinois, the Interim Police Chief of Northlake, Bensenville, Roselle, Forest Park, and Berwyn; also Past President of the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police. The scholarship will cover the cost of tuition (approximately $3000 to $3800) for a full-time, active police officer of the rank of Sergeant or above to attend one of the 10-week offerings of the School of Police Staff and Command of Northwestern University's Center for Public Safety. The scholarship is being made available through the generosity of Carl Dobb's family and friends, as well as Northwestern University's Center for Public Safety. Carl was a graduate of their then 9-month Police Administration Training Course.

Carl Dobbs Scholarship Criteria

- Full-time active law enforcement officer of rank of Sergeant or above with an Illinois law enforcement agency.
- Candidate agrees to remain as an active law enforcement officer in the State of Illinois for at least 5 years following the commencement of the School of Police Staff & Command Training or must pay back the value of the scholarship (currently $3,800) to the Dobbs Scholarship Fund.
- Candidates must be willing to commute to the training site if necessary (lodging costs are not included in the scholarship, just tuition).
- Candidates must have at least a "B" average (G. P.A. 3.0) on all academic work at the highest education level achieved, be it high school or college.
- Upon successful completion of the School of Police Staff & Command, the candidate will prepare a 3-to-5-page document detailing what he/she has learned and how it will benefit his/her Police Department/City. This will be submitted to the Chair of the ILACP Education & Programs Committee within 2 weeks after completion of the course.
- The candidate must have an acceptable & satisfactory work attendance record.
- The candidate must have the written approval of the Chief of Police, or if the candidate is a Chief of Police, the City Manager, or Mayor.
- Demonstrated financial need is not required for the law enforcement agency (one does not need to show that there is no other means to provide this training) since the scholarship is only for tuition.
- Completed application, attachments, resume', transcripts, and all required information (to include answers to the three questions) must be received by the ILACP office in Springfield by the end of business on February 1st.
- Must provide a written response in 300 to 500 words total to the following three (3) questions:
 1. Should a law enforcement organization's reputation be a direct reflection of the philosophy of its leadership? If an organization is viewed by its constituents as ineffective, unethical, dishonest, or brutal, is the agency's leadership (and ultimately the Chief) responsible for that perception?
 2. How can a law enforcement organization determine if it is adequately fulfilling the expectations of the community it serves?
 3. What is the difference between a manager and a leader? What are you? What is your leadership style and how will that style make you successful in your career?

Carl Dobbs Memorial Scholarship Program

ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE to attend
The School of Police Staff and Command, Northwestern University Center for Public Safety
DOBBS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Carl Dobbs Memorial Scholarship through the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police (ILACP) is dedicated to the enhancement of the law enforcement profession within the State of Illinois by providing management training to interested and qualified police departments and their personnel. This award is so named in honor of Carl Dobbs, former Chief of the Wheaton Police Department and Past President of the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police. The scholarship is made available through the generosity of Carl Dobbs' family and friends, as well as Northwestern University's Center for Public Safety.

The scholarship shall provide the funding necessary to cover tuition only (not transportation, study materials, food, or lodging) for candidates selected to attend the 10-week School of Police Staff and Command of Northwestern University's Center for Public Safety either at the main campus in Evanston, Illinois or at a satellite site, 10 consecutive weeks or split session (2 weeks in training/2 weeks not, over 20 weeks). The scholarship must be used by December 31 following the year the scholarship was awarded. [10/24]
