Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police
Law Enforcement Civilian Personnel Appreciation Week
Proclamation

WHEREAS, dedicated law enforcement civilian personnel serve the people of Illinois to provide them with vital services; and,

WHEREAS, law enforcement civilian personnel are crucial to helping law enforcement agencies protect and serve their communities; and,

WHEREAS, these professionals continually use their expertise and experience for critical duties including maintaining criminal justice statistics and improving apprehension strategies; and,

WHEREAS, these hard-working professionals deserve recognition and gratitude for their public service; and

WHEREAS, law enforcement civilian personnel serving throughout Illinois exhibit professionalism, efficiency, and compassion during the performance of their essential duties; and,

WHEREAS, the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police (ILACP) has designated the first week of June (beginning on the first Sunday of the month) as a time to recognize law enforcement civilian personnel; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, I, Chief Marc Maton, 76th President of the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police, do hereby proclaim the first week of June each year as LAW ENFORCEMENT CIVILIAN PERSONNEL APPRECIATION WEEK in Illinois, and encourage all citizens to recognize the importance and commend these vital civilian law enforcement personnel.

Chief Marc Maton
2024-2025 ILACP President
