CHAPTER 5

GENERAL PROVISIONS

House Bill 5540 Public Act 99-0642
Creates the First 2016 General Revisory Act. Combines multiple versions of Sections amended by more than one Public Act. Renumbers Sections of various Acts to eliminate duplication. Corrects obsolete cross-references and technical errors. Makes stylistic changes.
First 2016 General RevisoryEffective Date July 28, 2016

House Bill 5683 Public Act 99-0714
Amends the Open Meetings Act. Provides that where the provisions of this Act are not complied with, or where there is probable cause to believe that the provisions of this Act will not be complied with, any person may bring a civil action in the circuit court within 60 days of the decision by the Attorney General to resolve a request for review by a means other than the issuance of a binding opinion, if the person timely files a request for review with the Public Access Counselor.
5 ILCS 120/3Effective Date August 5, 2016

House Bill 4715 Public Act 99-0586
Amends the Freedom of Information Act. Creates additional penalties for public bodies that a Court has determined are willfully and intentionally failing to comply with the Freedom of Information Act. In addition to the current fine of $2,500 to $5,000, under this bill a Court may impose an additional penalty of up to $1,000/day on the public body if they fail to comply with the Court's Order within 30 days. Exceptions are given if the public body appeals the Order, or is given more time by the Court to comply. Provides for a new avenue of relief for requesters for a public body not complying with a binding opinion by the Attorney General. Currently, the Attorney General can seek a Court to enforce a binding opinion if they so choose. This would give the requester themselves standing to bring such a suit against the public body. Such suit may occur if the public body does not comply with or seek review of the binding opinion within 35 days of when they are served with the opinion (mirroring the timeline for review of the Administrative Review Act). A public body can rebut this presumption by showing that they have made a "good faith effort" to comply with the binding opinion within 35 days.
5 ILCS 140/2, 11, and 11.6 (NEW) Effective Date January 1, 2017

the defendant is charged with (1) first degree murder, (2) intentional homicide of an unborn child, (3) second degree murder, (4) voluntary manslaughter of an unborn child, (5) involuntary manslaughter or reckless homicide, (6) involuntary manslaughter or reckless homicide of an unborn child, and (7) drug-induced homicide. Provides that the new provisions extend the statute of limitations only against the individual who allegedly committed a violent intentional act or was the defendant charged with one of the specified crimes. Provides that the new provisions do not extend the statute of limitations against any other person or entity.
